

Master Lim's Taekwondo Belt Meaning Study Guide

No Belt: Birth in Taekwondo. The student takes the first step in Taekwondo.

White Belt: The beginning of spring. The student has enthusiasm to learn the basic skills of taekwondo.

Yellow Belt: Planting the seed. The student seeks focus and concentration.

Orange Belt: The growth in spring. The student develops the basic skills of Taekwondo.

Green Belt: The enrichment of summer. The student is determined to persevere and grow.

Blue Belt: The clear sky. The student expands mental and physical skills.

Purple Belt: The richness of autumn. The student deepens roots of self-discipline and self-control.

Red Belt: The sun is the source of all energy. The student demonstrates confidence to reach goals.

Brown Belt: The fullness of autumn. The student displays courage to achieve goals.

Jr Black Belt: Probation time before attaining 1st Dan Black Belt. The student refines his / her skills and sets new goals toward the spiritual learning at Black Belt level.